ACUPUNCTURE CLINICS

Spring - a time of renewal

Hooray! Spring has well and truly arrive and here at ACMAC we are inspired to welcome it with a renewed sense of purpose for the future of multibed acupuncture and are continuing to focus on being a sustainable and positive force within the wider acupuncture community.

This has in part been made possible by the speed and generosity with which you all renewed your memberships this year. We'd like to say a massive 'THANK YOU' to you all - it's made our lives much easier. Your commitment is inspiring!

ACMAC Conference 2017

ACMAC 2017: YEAR OF THE ROOSTER
ACUPUNCTURE TO THE PEOPLE
WWW.ACMAC.NET

And now that renewals are out the way we've been freed up to starting planning this year's conference and we're really excited about this year's line-up. The conference is a chance to learn, network, share and be inspired about community acupuncture. There will be speakers from across the world of acupuncture and multibed, meditation and qi gong, open space workshops and a great raffle PLUS amazing evening food and lots of silly dancing in the evening.

Full details of speakers and workshops to follow shortly but in the meantime we're happy to announce the following...

Lara McClure

We are hugely excited to confirm that Lara McClure will be joining us to talk about all things research.

Lara has a strong research background and leads the Research Stream on the acupuncture courses at the Northern College of Acupuncture in York. The multibed setting holds so much potential for carrying out research and we can't wait to share in Lara's expertise.

Our chosen charity is...

This year we will be donating the proceeds of our conference raffle to World Medicine, a registered UK charity providing acupuncture to people around the world suffering the effects of trauma, disaster and poverty. AND, we're delighted that two of the trustees - Ronit Broder and Phil Montgomery will be joining us to talk in person about the work they are doing in India.

Back by popular demand

It's not easy to explain what it feels like to take part in a gong meditation.

It is described as a form of sound therapy where the gong is played in a therapeutic way to bring about healing. It is transformative, intensely relaxing and feels like you have been transported to another world entirely! This was a real highlight of last year's conference and we're delighted to be welcoming Andy back again this year.

Can't wait until November to find out how to successfully set up a multibed clinic?

Then why not sign up to our popular online training event with Charlie Whitestone - founder and board member of ACMAC. Charlie Whitestone founded ACMAC in 2007. She has worked in various multibeds over the years, has taken a keen and geeky interest in the many different forms they can take and is passionate about seeing affordable acupuncture spread throughout all our communities.

This online course will give you the basic tools and information you need to start up your own multibed clinic. We will cover issues such as:

what's best - working in a team or working alone, finding a good venue, marketing your clinic, how to structure your clinic sessions, ethics of multibed practice and the importance of informed consent, and much more.

The group will be kept small (max 5 attendees) and Charlie will tailor the session to the needs of each attendee.

Book early to avoid missing out!

Great discount for ACMAC members

We are delighted to announce that all ACMAC members will now be eligible for a massive 25% discount on courses run by Unified Acupuncture Theory.

They will be running their Foundations course on 8th-9th July in London.

This is a mathematical approach to Dr.Tan's Balance Method using a logical visual model that explains and makes accessible meridian interactions in acupuncture. Say goodbye to memorizing point locations, functions and indications and say hello to understanding why points are where they are and their actions on the human body. United Acupuncture Theory Foundations Course bares new understanding to Zong Fu theory and point indications and moves meridian theory beyond empirical observation.

N.B. You will need a discount code to access the saving, which we will make available to all our current members.
